Enrolment status

MOFFAT, Jodie is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the City of Mandurah.

Jodie Moffat is a Mandurah local who has lived in Silver Sands since 2008. She is an experienced solicitor who opened her own small law firm in 2023. She is a member of the PCCI, a former Friend and longtime patron of MPAC and a member of two local environmental groups. Jodie's children attended both public and private schools in Mandurah, as well as the TAFE. Her parents and father-in-law spent their retirements in Mandurah, and Jodie is mindful of the good work the Council does in our community, but there is always more to do. Jodie is passionate about the environment, local business and sustainable development. In addition to her professional skills as a lawyer, Jodie has significant previous experience as a board and council member, having been on the boards of two charitable organisations and a council member of the Law Society of WA from 2015 to 2019. With this background, if elected, Jodie will use the skills she has on Council to bring Mandurah to a future for all of us.
