

Mandurah's Photographic History

Conditions

Donate a photograph to our collection.

Do you have photographs taken in and around Mandurah that are over 30 years old?

If you do, we would love to hear from you!

We have an extensive range of historical photographs and are passionate about preserving Mandurah's rich history. We are always keen to add new photographic treasures and their stories to our collection.

We are looking for photographs of landscapes, buildings, interiors, people at work, groups, sport and recreation, events etc.

We welcome donations from the community and non-residents to help people understand life in Mandurah through the ages.

- A donation form needs to be submitted with each photograph
- Photographs may be originals or scans at a minimum of 300dpi
- All photographs will be scanned for the museum Local History Collection, and the image may be used at the City's discretion
- All original photographs will be returned
- The museum will endeavor to take the utmost care of photographs, but will not accept responsibility for loss or damage while in our possession
- Donations received before 1 August 2019 at 4.00pm will be displayed at the museum for the month of August, the donor will be invited to a special afternoon tea and awards will be given for some photographs submitted.

To donate photographs and for further information please visit the Mandurah Community Museum, 3 Pinjarra Road, Mandurah or Email: museum@mandurah.wa.gov.au or phone 9550 3680

Donation forms are available at the City of Mandurah website.
www.mandurah.wa.gov.au/facilities/museum/whats-on

Donations are welcome at any time during the year, however to have your photographs displayed in August, be invited to afternoon tea and possibly receive an award for your contribution, please have your photographs submitted before 1 August 2019.
