Young Person's Agreement

I am aware that the City of Mandurah's Billy Dower Youth Centre advocates a safe place for all young people. To keep it safe I undertake not to annoy, harass, tease or bully others. I will respect the City of Mandurah's buildings and property. Should my behaviour break this agreement I understand that my parents will be informed and may have to meet the cost of any damage. I expect that other young people and staff will treat me with respect.

Parent/Guardian Consent

I will make appropriate arrangements for my child to be dropped off and picked up from the Billy Dower Youth Centre. I give permission for my child to be transported by public transport, private charter bus and/or private car while on the program. In the event of any accident or illness I authorise the organisers of this program to obtain on my behalf, any medical assistance that my child may require and I agree to reimburse the organisers for any expenses incurred by doing so. I understand that the City of Mandurah's Billy Dower Youth Centre has a behaviour policy and that if my child breaches that policy they could be immediately excluded from the program at the supervisor's discretion and I may be requested to reimburse the City to cover the cost of any damages. My child has read and understands the young person's agreement and has signed their name above.
