

A new way of seeing things workshop

Building strong and vibrant communities – where everyone can belong, matter and contribute.

The workshops will be facilitated by Ben Sgherza who has a lifetime of experience and knowledge as a person with disability and a professional working in the disability and advocacy sectors.

Workshop will cover:

Accessible and inclusive communities are friendly and welcoming places for everyone to enjoy.

- The meaning of disability in modern society
- Disability rights and responsibilities
- The lived experience of disability
- Language and communication
- Interaction and assistance

Two workshop dates (same content):

Dates: Wednesday 25 May
6.00pm - 8.00pm

Thursday 26 May
10.00am to 12.00pm

Venue: Seashells Mandurah
16 Dolphin Drive, Mandurah

Cost: Free - Light refreshments

RSVP: Jelena.Lazakovic
@mandurah.wa.gov.au or
9550 3274

Accessibility:

ACROD parking and an accessible toilet and shower facility available at the venue. Support workers are welcome to attend. If required, please contact Fiona.Allen@mandurah.wa.gov.au to request a social script for the event and/or discuss additional access needs and dietary requirements.

