Music Makers for Minis

About this visual story

This visual story has been created to support people attending Music Makers Just For Minis.

It explains what to expect during the event and helps children feel prepared and comfortable before attending.

There is a section at the end for parents and caregivers.

Event information

Music Makers Just for Minis is a fun workshop for children aged 2–5 years and their parent, carer, or grandparent.

It runs for 40 minutes and includes music, crafting, and play.

Children must be with an adult during the session.

Location

The event will take place at Lakelands Library.

Inside, there are bookshelves, desks, computers, and spaces where people can read, learn, and take part in activities.

The venue has wheelchair access, and there is a flat pathway to the entrance to help people enter the building safely.

Location

There will be signs to show you to the right room for the session.

Staff can also help you.

Parking

Standard and ACROD Parking can be found in the car parks nearby, that are shared with the shopping centre.

Parking can sometimes be busy at the shopping centre and library.

Public transport

You can take a bus to a spot nearby and walk to the library.

Check the Transperth Journey Planner website for more information.

What to bring

You can bring anything that helps you feel comfortable during the performance.

You may like to bring:

- A water bottle
- A comfort item or favourite toy
- Any sensory supports you use

At the sessions

Children will do a simple craft activity together before enjoying music, singing, and movement.

You can take your music-maker home at the end of the session.

The session is fun, interactive, and made just for young children.

Enjoy your visit

We hope you have lots of fun at Music Makers Just for Minis.
