The Playful Plate

About this visual story

This visual story has been created to support people attending The Playful Plate.

It explains what to expect during the event and helps people feel prepared and comfortable before attending.

Event information

The Playful Plate is a free, fun theatre experience that happens outdoors at the Eastern Foreshore.

It is a playful activity where people use imagination, games and conversation instead of eating food.

You can choose to join if you would like to.

Parking

Standard parking is available along Mandurah Terrace and nearby Eastern Foreshore car parks.

ACROD parking bays are available in the Eastern Foreshore car parks and nearby city centre parking areas.

Public transport

You can take a bus to the Eastern Foreshore.

Check the Transperth Journey Planner website for more information.

During the performance

Inside a large, red, cage-like structure, you will see a pop-up restaurant with no food.

Two performers will guide you through a fun and interactive theatre experience using stories, imagination, and play.

You can watch, listen, or join in.

You can take part in your own way.

No bookings are needed.

Toilets

The Eastern Foreshore toilets are located near the Tuckey Street roundabout and parking area.

The toilet block includes accessible toilets for people who need them.
