I am a small business owner former Shire of Kojonup Councillor and a proud Australian committed to serving the community with honesty, integrity and common sense. I have spent many years building businesses, creating local jobs and supporting regional communities. These experiences have given me a practical understanding of the challenges facing families, seniors, young people and local businesses. I believe good leadership means listening to residents, being visible in the community, making informed decisions and always being accountable. If elected, I will focus on responsible financial management, better infrastructure, supporting local businesses, improving housing opportunities, protecting our parks and public spaces, and ensuring residents are consulted before major council decisions are made. My commitment is simple: to represent every resident fairly, work respectfully with others, and help build a stronger, safer and more prosperous Mandurah for current and future generations.
